Another "Innocent" Abroad

One of the most refreshing specimens of ignorance and common sense has been delighting a portion of American Rome the last fortnight It is one our countrymen He has become famous His witty sayings have been repeated at the dinner parties of "the elect made perfect" As Monsieur Jourdain, he has spoken prose without knowing it. I made even the calm, languid features of Mr Leckey the author of Rationalism, relax into a benignant smile, at a dinner the other night, and the rest of the company peal out laughter by recounting in the simplest manner the delicious bon mots of this wit unawares,

Here " he said to a gentleman, whom he met in the reading room of the hotel at which they both lodged, here, tell me what there is to see in this infernal old one hoss town "

The gentleman appealed to was stunned for an instant then he suddenly thought of St. Peter's as a place likely to affect all manner of persons ignorant as well as educated,

'O I've seen that bildin', sir,' answered our wit 'I've walked its hull length and breadth and then stepped off its width and then went a top I know the old place all through and through to bits None of you can't tell nothin' about that old church I jest studied it out all by myself, and I finished it up clean I tell you But there's another bildin' I was told I must see, and I can't for the life of me recollect what it's called "

Several places were named over in vain, at last the Coliseum was by chance mentioned

'Kelly se um! That sounds suthin like it What sort of bildin is it? What did they use to do in it?

'It was a place of public amusement," he was told

'A sort of theater eh?" he asked

Yes an amphitheater for public games

Is it runnin' now? '

Oh no! it is in ruins "

'Oh played out, ' said our delicious wit, with a snort of contempt I see Just like many another thing in the blasted dirty old hole and my dear fellow countryman swaggered off sucking his cigar, filled with intense disgust for the whole d—d nonsense as he expressed it of this here Rome and its ruins its idolatry ignorance and dirt ' A few days afterward he said he had been visiting some of the galleries, he was asked how he liked the pictures?

'Not much it seems like a useless pack of rubbish to me But then you see, I'm no epicure ' —Anne Brewster's Home Letter in Philadelphia Bulletin

AN EDITORIAL BRUTUS An editor out West indulges in the following talk to his delinquent subscribers and patrons The famous speech of Brutus on the death of Cæsar, as rendered by Shakespeare is made to do service in this amusing travesty Hear us for our debts and get ready that you may pay trust us we are in need and have regard to our need as you have long been trusted acknowledge your indebtedness and dive into your pockets that you may promptly fork over If there be any among you—one single patron—that don't owe us something then to him we say step aside—consider yourself a gentleman If the rest wish to know why we dun them, this is our answer Not that we care about ourselves, but our creditors do Would you rather that we went to jail, and yourselves went free than you pay your debts to keep us moving? As we agreed, we work for you but as you don't pay we dun you Here are agreements for jobs contracts for subscription, promises for long credit, and duns for deferred payment Who is there so green that he don't take a paper? If any let him slide, he ain't the chap neither Who is there so mean that he don't pay his printers? If any let him shout, for he's the man we're after His name is Legion, and he's owing us for one, two, three, four, five, six years—long enough to make us poor and him rich at our expense. '

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN STATES.

Sensational.

CHICAGO May 10 —The Tribune's Washington special has a sensational story to the effect that a plot has been discovered which comprehends the rejection of Grant by the Philadelphia Convention, and the substitution of Senator Morton as a candidate for President It is alleged that ex Gov Burbank of Idaho, a brother of Mrs Senator Morton now residing at Omaha, has been sending confidential letters to the delegates already appointed to the Convention, in which a plan is set forth and their co operation is solicited The dispatch says one of these letters was forwarded by a delegate to a Senator who will lay it before the President to-day While there is reason to believe some such letters have been written by Burbank, there is also reason for asserting that they were written without Morton's knowledge, and that he was greatly displeased at the unwarranted use of his name in them Notwithstanding all rumors of combination, plots to defeat the renomination of Grant it is noticeable that no Republican newspaper has so far favored or hinted at such a movement

The St Louis Republican publishes a list of one hundred Democratic papers in various parts of the country east west north and south, which have expressed themselves upon the Cincinnati nominations, and classifies them as follows In favor of straight out and out nominations by a Democratic Convention, 11, including the Washington Patriot, New York World, Pittsburg Post, Philadelphia Age, Baltimore Gazette, Savannah News, Boston Post, and Detroit Free Press Speak well of the ticket, but await the action of the Democratic Convention, twenty four, including the Albany Argus and Times, Louisville Courier Journal, Chicago Times, Richmond Inquirer, Cleveland Plain dealer, New York Express, and Mobile Register Commend the ticket to the support of the Democrats, sixty-three, including the Cincinnati Inquirer, New Orleans Times and Picayune, Illinois State Register, Dubuque Herald, Richmond Whig, Irish Citizen and Irish Democrat, of New York, Indianapolis Sentinel, Buffalo Courier, and three Democratic papers in St Louis A majority of the last named class are country papers, many of them wealthy

The Tariff Question.

CHICAGO, May 10 —A Washington special says that the opponents of a change in the tariff bill are preparing to make another charge against it in the form of a short bill, sweeping away the internal revenue tax by wholesale, and reducing the income of the Government so materially that it will be expedient if not necessary to let the present tariff stand An attempt will be made to run said bill through on Monday next, under a suspension of the rules

The Geneva Conference

NEW YORK, May 10 —A Washington special says that should the next exchange of dispatches be unfavorable for arbitration, it is in contemplation to issue an immediate order for the recall of the United States Agent and Consul appointed to conduct our case at Geneva, in time to prepare for the next session of Congress an exhaustive statement and vindication of our Government under the treaty, for the double purpose of setting the country and administration right before the world, and of conserving our interests against such future measures and opportunity as may arise, for the satisfactory settlement of the difficulties between ourselves and England.

SATURDAY MORNING MAY 1 2

Says the Spider to the Fly

Our Democratic contemporaries though refusing to support Greeley are in high glee under the supposition that he will take off enough Republicans to be elected For instance the East Portland Era which commenced selling the Democracy to keep it off from any alliance with the Greeley faction of the Radical party says that Greeley would only have to poll a comparatively small vote in New York Pennsylvania and two or three other States to turn them against Grant and thus make the election of a Democrat certain This is a very nice programme Pennsylvania our neighbor tells us will yield Greeley a hearty support on account of his ideas in favor of a protective tariff and against free trade Which is as much as to say that the people of Pennsylvania are so short-sighted as to throw the country into the hands of the freetraders and thus destroy its industries because Greeley is a protectionist or to put it differently that a part of them will vote for Greeley who they know cannot be elected thus sacrificing an administration which is known to be devoted to the protective policy and bringing into power an administration which will be pledged to free trade This is a handsome invitation to Pennsylvania to commit hari kari It is quite as nice as the fable of the spider and the fly

The life of Pennsylvania and of other producing and manufacturing States is a protective tariff. They enjoy such protection now Can any one suppose that the people of these States will walk into a trap like this? Grant is as good a protective tariff man as Greeley The people of Pennsylvania are too intelligent to sacrifice their prosperity by throwing their State and the country into the hands of free-traders

In another article our East Portland neighbor says the Cincinnati Convention represented the masses of the Republican party—a statement that is not quite consistent with its former one that Greeley is expected to carry off only a few thousand votes The members of that Convention, it is said, were once friends of Grant and helped him to his present position Now it is but truth to say that the leading spirits in the present opposition to Grant were bitter opponents of his nomination in 1868. The New York Tribune was vigorous and persistent in its opposition It spoke disparagingly of Grant, it declared that he was not the right man to nominate it called him a "sashed and girded sphinx, and insisted that any other man would be better. In short, Mr Greeley would not have been averse to taking the nomination himself Mr Schurz also urged the nomination of some other person Mr Trumbull and Mr. Sumner did likewise But the people nominated Gen Grant and elected him, and they will do both again

It will be found that after the Democrats make their nominations Mr Greeley will have no following anywhere If indeed anything so utterly improbable as his nomination by the Democratic Convention should follow, then a third of the Democratic vote would stay at home or go for Grant Both the Herald and Era think the Cincinnati Convention very important, but the National Democratic Committee were more nearly right when, at their meeting in New York a few days ago, they pronounced it a "melancholy failure."

Consequential Damages

The British Colonist after the fashion of some of the London journals puts on the regular John Bull airs in speaking of the American claim for consequently damages We would remind our neighbor that the United States have not yet withdrawn that claim nor will they unless the principle which is put at issue in our case be settled by a special stipulation between the two high contracting powers. The Colonist goes too fast in assuming that these claims are withdrawn, and the care for the "honor and dignity of Brother Jonathan" is entirely gratuitous Here is what the Colonist says.

The indistinct utterances of the electric telegraph have at length become sufficiently intelligible to warrant the conclusion that the United States Government have withdrawn the foolish claim so persistently urged before the High Court of Arbitration of Geneva for what is now commonly known as "consequential damages" This is well, but it would have been better for the United States if the claims had never been presented. Having been presented, it would have been more dignified to have withdrawn them sooner. But "better late than never," and we have no desire to detract from whatever credit may be due for the withdrawal of these ridiculous claims even now Brother Jonathan has saved his neck, if he has not preserved his honor and dignity But, what is of much greater importance, the peace of the world has been preserved, and the success of the principle of settling by peaceful arbitration disputes hitherto settled only by the sword has been rendered possible, if not certain It would be difficult to say how far the case proper of the United States may be prejudiced by the little game of "trying it on," but it appears to be tolerably certain that the claim will not be strengthened thereby

Of Democratic fabrication there is no end A correspondent of the Herald asserts that J G. Wilson, Republican candidate for Congress, some time ago "wrote a private letter to Mr. Holladay, 'in which "pledges' were given, in order "to secure Holladay's support" The editor of the Herald has frequently asserted the same thing in substance, but never so broadly The whole thing is entirely groundless Mr Wilson never wrote a letter or any sort of communication to Mr. Holladay in his life We have this from Mr. Wilson himself

The Democratic Era (East Portland) comes out against the Cincinnati ticket and platform The Herald, representing the trading wing of the party, whose principles in all cases are readily adjustable to expediency and to considerations of pelf and profit, declines to express any opinion

This is the resolution that was struck out of the Democratic platform at the Dalles Convention "Resolved, That we are opposed to granting reasonable aid for the construction of railroads in this State

The Republican Convention of Multnomah county will meet to-day at the Court House at 1 o clock P M A full legislative and county ticket will be nominated

The Albany Register contains the following On Monday evening as Mrs Wright who resides seven or eight miles from this city was engaged milking she was knocked insensible by a calf, which, being under full headway butted her on the side of the head On Tuesday the lady was in much pain, and it may yet prove a serious case."

POLITICAL NOTES

The public debt statement shows a decrease of $12 588 000 for the month of April Could a Democratic or "sorehead" administration do better?

Among patents which we expect soon to see issued is the following To Horace Greeley of New York for a self adjusting Indiarubber conscience enabling the owner to go back on himself on the tariff question for campaign purposes

It is understood that a committee of working men in the interests of the labor reform party is preparing an address to Judge Davis demanding from him a direct answer to the question whether he intends to embody their ideas if elected to the Presidency

The Wyoming [illegible] thus replies to Alexander H Stephens Yet a number of dead issues have been buried in our graveyard One is labeled A H S, the other Bourbon Democracy Both are too dead for resurrection even when Gabriel blows his horn

Twenty men of New York city indorsed the Cincinnati movement whereupon the Tribune exclaims New York for the Cincinnati Convention The three tailors of Tooley street who headed the petition We the people of England furnish the only parallel to this

In the Electoral College of 357 votes this year the former slaveholding States will have 1[illegible] votes the Western States 102 the New England and Middle States 109 and the Pacific States 12 votes Therefore according to geographical apportionment the South is still the leading political power in the Union

The Baltimore American says the present administration is an administration of ideas the most prominent of which is the idea that it wouldn t be safe just at present to restore the Democratic party to power—an idea which also commands the approbation of the people, if recent elections furnish a criterion

No workmen have been discharged from the new postoffice in New York on account of being connected with the eight hour organizations Several have been recently discharged for incompetency, and because of the present lack of materials No workmen are or have been employed by the day on the works and the best prices per hour are paid all competent men

The Argus calls the Cincinnati movement an 'uprising against Grant' A few years ago there were 'uprisings against Grant all the way from Vicksburg to Appomattox Court House but they were ineffectual The boys in blue led by their victorious General, successfully mastered those uprisings then and the people under the same leader will overcome these uprisings now

The Chicago Tribune has a very frank correspondent in Pennsylvania whose letter it publishes conspicuously He thus confesses The New York Times says the opposition to Grant comes from the disappointed politicians It is right I say so too" But he thinks there are enough of them to beat Grant On that point he gives an opinion on the first, he speaks from knowledge

The Cincinnati would be architects of ruin seem to be making a regular business of claiming adherents without the slightest shadow of authority They claimed President Woolsey of Connecticut, and he repudiated them, saying that he should support the Philadelphia nominations They claimed Captain Ward a well known and influential politician of Michigan and he repudiated them And these are samples of others

The Reunion and Reform Convention which was in session at Cincinnati at the same time with the 'sorehead gathering received Greeley s nomination very unfavorably Judge Stallo, its President expressed profound disappointment and said he was satisfied that the Liberal party lacked honesty and courage Mr Hoitridge hoped the Convention would utterly repudiate the action of the Convention Denger of Missouri bitterly denounced Greeley and declared that he was nominated by corrupt politicians A resolution instructing the Executive Committee to call a National Convention was passed, and the Convention adjourned sine die

CITY.

EAST OF THE MOUNTAINS —We are indebted to a gentleman just down from Lewiston for the following items

The Columbia river is still slowly rising The warm weather of the past week has produced a decided effect on the vast masses of snow in the mountains The Snake river is coming up quite rapidly. It is now about ten feet above the ordinary stage of water

Chief Engineer Morris, of the Northern Pacific Railroad, western division started with a party, a few days since, to the Snake river country to make a preliminary examination with a view to locate the road.

The Oregon Steam Navigation Company's steamer Shoshone which was sunk some time since by having a hole stove in her hull was raised a few days ago She will be in condition to take the line in a short time But slight damage was sustained.

Crops everywhere are looking well but need a little more rain to insure a bountiful yield

There has been no recent mining excitement to distract the public mind from the quiet avocations of life.

Recent heavy frosts have committed sad havoc with the fruit prospects The entire peach crop has been destroyed.

A number of emigrants from this State and Washington Territory are moving to portions of Idaho, and the country is fast settling up

The Circuit Court for Walla Walla county, Judge Lewis, presiding, will convene next week [illegible] among the cases for trial will be that of the alleged defaulter, Kyger.

THE A. M. SMALL.—The ship A. M. Small, [illegible] Master, of 1,053 tons registered capacity [illegible] off the Columbia bar a few days ago [illegible] lying at Astoria. The A. M. Small [illegible] voyage from New York to the bar in the quickest time in which that distance has yet been made by sail She reached the bar on the 115th day from the time of her sailing Prior to this voyage, she made two trips from New York to San Francisco, one in 118 days, and another in a little over 119 days. She brings a cargo of 1,354 tons of iron and railroad material for the N[illegible] Pacific Railroad Company, and consequently will discharge her cargo at Kalama At the [illegible] stage of water it cannot be determined when she will be able to reach that point. She is drawing nineteen and a half feet A bar [illegible] has been formed a short distance above [illegible], and renders it difficult for vessels drawing thirteen feet of water to pass at low tide, will [illegible] the Small from crossing, until she has been [illegible] lightened On last Thursday, the [illegible] came up to Kalama to see what arrangements he could effect toward that object It is not yet known where this ship will load from CHARIVARI PARTY —The sensitive ear of midnight was tortured on Wednesday and Thursday nights by a charivari party, who were out to show their respects to a newly spliced couple. On Wednesday night they discovered that they had been blowing and pounding around an unoccupied house, and gave the enterprise up in disgust. [illegible], on the next night they rallied their hosts and after being certain beyond doubt that the couple were at a certain house, they proceeded to [illegible] themselves for the space of a half hour in [illegible] a most unearthly din The music [illegible] every person for an area of seven blocks and would have seriously disturbed the repose of the celebrated "seven sleepers" of Mark Twain memory. At first they were mistaken for a crowd of [illegible] disciples of Confucius offering up their midnight oblations to the mighty Joss, to the sound of the wheezy horn and vibrating sheep skin At last the charivariers took compassion on everybody and retired to the shades of silence and obscurity.

EAST PORTLAND BURGLARIZED —The "Light Fingered Brigade" have lately been paying their unwelcome addresses to the quiet going citizens of East Portland Within the last week, burglarious entrances have been effected to four [illegible]. Among the number, was the residence of Thomas Parrott, leader of the East Portland Band. The windows were securely nailed down, but the thieves forced one up with a lever Nothing of value was taken A widow lady's house was also entered and a valuable gold watch purloined. Marshal Lane has been endeavoring to trace the matter up, but as yet without success They are evidently an invoice from this side Our smaller sister over the way wants population, but not of that kind, we imagine.

AT THE RINK —On Monday the 27th inst the Turn Verein's of this city propose to give a grand exhibition at the skating rink. The exercises for the evening will consist of singing, by the society, and various acrobatic performances. During the [illegible] the celebrated Niagara Leap will be in[illegible] as a novelty. The members will start from their hall about 4 o'clock on that day and [illegible] down to the rink, headed by the music. [illegible] five o'clock the prize turning will take place between a number of the most expert gymnasts, and a prize awarded to the most proficient in that feat. The occasion will be one of no small interest to those who admire feats of muscle and physical activity

MISS ANNA MEHLIG —Several days since we spoke of negotiations which were on foot between one of the leading musicians of this city and Miss Mehlig, the celebrated female piano performer, by which she was to come to Portland and hold a series of instrumental concerts We learn that there is a probability that the effort will prove unsuccessful, as that lady is doing a good business at San Francisco, and will not come at any risk to herself, or except on the condition that a large sum of money is secured to her She asks two thousand dollars for one week—a sum which it would be difficult to raise either by private subscription or public patronage

TURNER'S FEAST —At a recent meeting of the Turn Verein Society it was determined to hold the annual May Feast on the last Sunday of the present month—29th inst. The place selected is the Canyon Gardens Preparations sufficient to accommodate all who may attend have been made. The East Portland Brass Band has been engaged to discourse music The exercises at the Gardens will consist of singing dancing, gymnastics, hurdle races, etc. Mr Paul Shulze will deliver an oration in German and M W Fechheimer, Esq , one in English Everything will be fully announced by advertisements

AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Capt E W Stannard of the ship Windward desires in behalf of the family and friends of the late J J Harlow to tender his sincere acknowledgments to Drs Chapman and Cooper for their kind attentions and the skillful manner in which they treated the [illegible] sufferer, and for declining to receive any remuneration for their services He also tenders his thanks to Drs Cardwell Kinney, Loryea and Ryan, who were present and lent all the assistance in their power to the deceased

TEXTS OF SERVICES —Services will be held as usual in the First Congregational Church to morrow morning and evening by the Rev G H [illegible]. Text for 11 o'clock services, John xix, 30th, "When Jesus therefore had received the [illegible], he said, 'It is finished,' and he bowed his head and gave up the Ghost " The text for 7½ P. M., is Proverbs xxii, 1st, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold "

BADGES.—Multnomah Engine Co No 2 have lately received from New York, seventy five badges, at a cost of $120 They are very neatly [illegible] and are heavily plated with silver They are to be worn by the members of that company

FOR PORTLAND.—The dispatches announce that the steamer John L Stephens, having been practically re-built, will sail for Portland this morning, with passengers and freight This steamship has not been at this port for about one year

S. S. PICNIC —We are authorized to state that the Taylor Street Sunday School picnic will be given on Wednesday next, at Sauvie's Island Children under ten years old will be free

SERVICES OMITTED —Owing to the absence of the Rev. Dr. A L Lindsley, the usual morning and evening services will be omitted at the First Presbyterian Church to morrow

CHANGE IN TIME —Commencing on Tuesday the 14th inst , the mail boat for Monticello will leave Portland at 6 o'clock A M daily except Sundays.

DIVINE SERVICES —Rev T L Eliot being absent at Olympia, services in the Unitarian Church will be conducted by the Rev J C Kimball

PASSENGERS.—The steamer Idaho brought to this port 58 cabin and 95 steerage passengers

THE PORTLAND, DALLES AND SALT LAKE RAILROAD.

To the Citizens of Portland and Multnomah County The Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad Company under and by virtue of an Act of Congress, are about to proceed to the survey and location of their road The Columbia river is rising, and the work on that part of the line must be done immediately We ask of you a helping hand Of the vital importance of this enterprise, we need not speak You understand and can but appreciate it Facts are being daily developed which leave no room for doubt as to the course which Oregon, and particularly Portland, ought to pursue The right of way has been granted us, which establishes many points in the success of the enterprise and we feel assured that before the 4th of March next Congressional aid will be granted Nevertheless, such arrangements have been made as that with the moderate and legitimate aid which the State can and will be asked to give, in conjunction with the promised local support, the road will be constructed at least to Baker City with a short branch from some point in Umatilla county to the Walla Walla valley thus securing to Portland the entire trade of the Columbia and Snake river valleys, even though Congress should fail in granting our most reasonable request To meet these contingencies our labors have been directed and upon your action depends a result that must tell in all future time whether Portland shall be the proud, commanding city of the great Northwest or subside into a fit habitation for bats and owls.

Everywhere railroads are controlling the destinies of cities, commerce following them as unerringly as the sun its course in the heaven, and it is by effort that these great results are accomplished. Witness the movements in San Francisco, St Louis, Chicago and numerous other places

Until very recently almost every movement looking to the construction of the Salt Lake Railroad made its terminus upon the upper Columbia and public opinion in Eastern Oregon and Idaho seemed not to be averse to that idea, or to the extension from such point directly across the Cascade Mountains to Puget Sound, ignoring Portland altogether, and placing her at the mercy of a monopolized transportation on the Columbia Through much effort the error is being corrected, and Eastern Oregon and Idaho propose and are doing a noble part in the work, and now ask you to join them and make the task an easy one It is now entirely practicable to assure your safety, it may not be so long

The sum of $5,000 for the present has been apportioned to Portland, and Messrs C. P Ferry, R J Ladd, Jacob Stitzel, Henry W Davis, C Holman and N. H Lane of East Portland are authorized to receive subscriptions Respectfully,

W W CHAPMAN, President

May 10, 1872.

In the matter of Maria L Kittridge order of sale set aside

PATENT CHURN —We were shown yesterday by Mr H E Pattee a new patent churn, known as the "Walking Beam Dasher Churn " It is without exception one of the most simple pieces of mechanism in its operations which we have ever seen In its workings it is the very essence of simplicity—there being nothing farther than a wooden platform, a walking beam and a small cast iron fly-wheel, with a crank attached to each end of the shaft One of these is for the hand to turn and the other to impart motion to a "walking beam" by means of an upright piece of wood The other end of the beam is attached to the churn dasher Thus by simply turning the crank the dasher is driven up and down in the same manner as if moved directly by the hand The speed can be regulated at will. The churn is after the old style, and is either made of tin or wood These churns are made to suit any demand, and the machinery—what there is of it—is made to correspond in power. They range in capacity from supplying the demands of a small family to an extensive dairy. One great advantage in having these churns is, that should the machinery get broken, it is so very simple that almost any one can repair the damage, or make one entire Their several points of excellence should commend them to general use among farmers and dairymen These churns were patented by Messrs McManus & Merriman, June 1, 1869 Mr Pattee is the owner of the right for Oregon and Washington Territory

OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION —The Street Commissioner has, within the last week, issued official notifications to the number of about eighty, to various persons to have the sidewalks and pavement repaired in front of their respective places of business By the authority of an ordinance now pending before the Common Council, the Commissioner will be clothed with new powers in relation to the strict enforcement of sundry matters connected with the comfort convenience and sanitary conditions of the city We shall timely speak of this matter

GERMAN CHURCH —We learn that a division has lately been determined upon in the membership of the Lutheran Evangelical Church of this city The purely German membership will be more immediately under the ministration of Rev Mr Gaus, while Rev Mr Weaver will officiate as pastor of the other portion Mr Gaus will hereafter preach in German at Independent German Schoolhouse on Morrison street, near Park, and Mr Weaver in English at the Church, corner Fifth and Taylor streets

JOINT MEETING —There will be a joint meeting of the Directors of the Portland Library Association and the Good Templar's Hall Association this evening at half past seven o'clock, in the rear parlor of Ladd & Tilton's bank A project is on foot to unite the two institutions in the matter of securing rooms, and the meeting this evening is called for the purpose of a consultation between the Directors of the two Associations as to the best method to be pursued

QUEEN SABE '—A gentleman informs a Salem paper that steps have been already taken in Portland to arrange for a general celebration of the Fourth on the largest scale ever attempted in that city If arrangements have been made to celebrate on a large scale or any other scale they they have been so secretly made as to defy all the prying curiosity of our very inquisitive reporter

PEACH CROP —At the Court House we observed yesterday a very small peach tree growing out from under the side of the stone basement loaded with the young fruit It is not often that this tree bears fruit so early—it being but a slender twig of not more than a year's growth The fruit looks as if it has sustained no injury from the late frosts and give promise of a fine crop

GUESTS RECEIVED —We learn that Mr Blackwell, the gentleman who has leased the new hotel of Mr Halsey, has effected arrangements with Rev C W Shaw by which he (Blackwell) agrees to receive and accommodate two hundred guests on the Fourth of July should the proposed excursion, of which we spoke at some length in yesterday's issue, be carried into effect

CALL CARD —Wells Fargo & Co have issued call cards The ground is red with the name of the Company printed thereon It is a very convenient thing among merchants We understand that the company intend shortly to put up letter boxes at several points about the city, and thus add to the existing accommodations to the public

Good Night.

Good-night, dear friend! I say good-night to thee
Across the moonbeams, tremulous and white,
Bridging all space between us. It may be—
Lean low, sweet friend—it is the last good-night!

For, lying mute upon my couch and still,
The fever flush vanished from my face,
I heard them whisper softly: "Tis His will Angels will give her happier resting-place!"

And so, from sight of tears that fell like rain,
And sound of sobbing smothered close and low,
I turned my white face to the window pane
To say good-night to thee before I go.

Good-night, good-night! I do not fear the end,
The conflict with the billows dark and high;
And yet, if I could touch thy hand, my friend,
I think it would be easier to die.

If I could feel, through all the quiet waves
Of my deep hair, thy tender breath athrill,
I could go down to the place of graves
With eyes sublime, and pale lips smiling still.

Or it may be that if, through all the strife
And pain of parting, I should hear thy call,
I should come singing back to sweet, sweet life,
And know no mystery of death at all.

It may not be. Good-night, dear friend, good-night!
And when you see the violets again,
And hear through boughs with swollen buds a-white,
The gentle falling of the April rain,

Remember her whose young life held thy name
With all things holy in its outward flight,
And turn sometimes from haunts of Love and Fame
To hear again her low good-night, good night.

Seasoned Lumber.

The art of curing lumber is of the utmost importance, since no wood is suitable for use in its green state. In the condition in which it is felled, the tissues are distended with sap, and when this evaporates the fibres contract. If green lumber is placed in an open situation—subject to the free action of the air—the sap dries up slowly, and the lumber becomes fit for use. When, however, it is imperfectly dried, or placed in a confined situation, the sap rapidly decomposes, and only hastens the decay of the wood.

The ancients had a very excellent method of seasoning, which was at one time extensively used. It consisted in placing the wood while green under running water, and washing the sap out, and subsequently allowing the wood to dry in the shade. It is said that timber for the French and English navy is prepared in this manner at the present day; but for ordinary uses the slow penetration of wood by water renders this process too expensive, and it is therefore not used.

Another plan of curing wood is by the agency of steam; but steamed lumber will easily warp or split, and the loss to manufacturers and consumers on account of shaky lumber, prepared in this way, is very considerable. While cold water dissolves the sap, hot water coagulates the albumen, which fills up the pores, and thus impedes the evaporation of the sap. The thicker the wood the more sensibly it is affected to its permanent injury. What is still more destructive to the fibre is the fermentation which takes place on being steamed. This action is in no wise subject to control, and continually varies in its effect, sometimes honeycombing the lumber, and again causing the cut sides to sink in and become concave. However excellent any kind of wood may appear to be, when subjected to the action of steam, it is liable to be greatly damaged, and no uniformity of appearance is likely to result from any two applications of the same process.

It is claimed by some authorities that the soluble elements of wood can be speedily and effectually removed by boiling the lumber in a solution of borax, and that by this mode the fibre is very little affected. One thing is certain; if lumber cannot be perfectly seasoned by other means than exposing it to the action of the air and sun, it is, in the end, a matter of true economy to cure it thoroughly in this old-fashioned way. Buildings, furniture, carriages, and all other articles made of imperfectly seasoned wood, are subject to speedy decay; but when made of perfectly seasoned timber, they are almost indestructible, when only subjected to ordinary wear.

Legends of the Yellowstone.

The Yellowstone country has been called the American Wonderland, and many articles descriptive of its marvelous phenomena have recently appeared. The following is an extract from one presented in Scribner's Monthly:

Here, the trappers tell us, is the "mother region" of the gold, where the Indians told Father de Smet it was found on the surface. Here are the burning plains, so testifies Bridger, at the head of the Yellowstone, and large lakes, and boiling springs like the geysers of Iceland. Here he saw his Two Ocean River, which after flowing some distance, separates into two large streams—one traveling to the Atlantic, the other to the Pacific. In one of these vales is a large tract of sage brush, every leaf and branch perfect, and here and there are rabbits, sage hens, and even Indians, all turned to solid stone. Ill fares it with whosoever penetrates these mysteries, for the genius of the place at once adds him to the group of statuary. More wonderful still—and our trapper told it with great awe—these bushes bear rare fruit—thousands of rubies, sapphires, diamonds, emeralds large as walnuts. "I tell you, sir," said one veracious narrator to Captain Reynolds, "it is true, for I gathered a quart myself and sent them down the country." A party of whites were once hotly pursued by Indians, and could only travel by night, when they were aided by the brilliant light shot from a huge diamond in a neighboring mountain, by which they traveled on for three consecutive nights. Here once an old trapper was lost on his road from Fort Laramie to Taos, and wandered for many days; and in drinking from a stream found pieces of yellow metal large as hazel nuts, which he carried to Taos and found to be pure gold. He spent many years seeking the place again, but in vain. These and many other legends and traditions of these regions the trappers gave us as truths familiar in the mountains as household words, which it would be impious to doubt.

TIME VINDICATES AN INNOCENT MAN.—The Jacksonville (Missouri) Journal relates the the following singular occurrence, showing how sometimes innocent parties suffer from unjust accusations:

Fifteen years ago one Sam Steele worked on a farm for George Barbour, who lived a mile and a half north of this place. One day Barbour came to town, bringing his wife. Before starting he called in Steele, and in his presence put $250 in a bureau drawer, locked it up, and delivered to him the key of the drawer, as well as the key of the house, telling him to take care of both for the day. Returning home at night and recounting the money, Barbour found that a $50 bill was missing. Steele, who was the only one that knew of the whereabouts of the money besides B., denied all knowledge of the missing bill, declaring that he had not entered the room since he did so with Barbour. The latter maintained that Steele must know something about it, and finally discharged him from his service. Steele left and has never been heard of since. A few days since Barbour found the missing $50 in the back part of the bureau, caught in the frame. One-half of the bill was worn away by rubbing of the drawer as it had been pulled backward and forward. When he found it he burst into tears, conscience-stricken from having unjustly accused and censured Steele. The remainder of the long-lost bill is now in the possession of John Bradbury.

An East Saginaw (Michigan) jury desired to bring in a verdict in poetry.

An Estimate of Greeley.

The following is an extract from an article in the Sacramento Union:

Greeley is a poor judge of men, and has often had his credulity imposed upon by an artful tale, and been "taken in and done for" by the most profligate and worthless of the race. Such a man is not fit for President. He is too innocent by half. The scheming, plausible politicians would blind and capture him, and lead him into devious ways. Leave him where he is, with a chance to have intercourse with everybody, to commune with nature on his farm, or run about to exchange ideas with all classes, and his good genius will lead him sometimes and often right. But when the politicians resolve to cast their jugglers' mists before his eyes, his career as President will be marked by many windings, etc. That time will never come. The Cincinnati Convention has made a mistake and a fatal one, so far as the hopes of the Liberal Republicans are concerned. It is true that Greeley has been one of the pillars of the Republican party. No man has done more to disseminate the principles of human freedom. Many as are his vagaries, he has done much to enlighten his countrymen and instill into their minds a love for the right. The liberated slave has cause to respect the name of Horace Greeley. Perhaps no man in the United States has more or warmer friends. Perhaps no one wields so large an influence with his pen. But among the majority of his readers and the best of his friends there is a doubt of his fitness for the office to which he has just been nominated. A great many causes will conspire to lessen his vote, not the least of which will be the infinite variety of caricatures of himself and incidents of his personal history that will deluge the country. If abuse and bad blood have been prominent in campaigns agone, we can congratulate ourselves that a cessation has come for once and humor and laughter will be substituted instead. Both of the nominees of the Cincinnati Convention are prominent men—the one as the leading editor of the country, and the other a distinguished lawyer and editor, and as the Governor of Missouri. But this fact will avail them nothing in the canvass. The press is the very opposite of clannish. There is a jealousy, though nominally all are on the same mission, that bodes no good to a journalist when he enters the political field as a candidate. Accustomed to express himself on all subjects, he must necessarily make mistakes. Greeley and Gratz Brown are both vulnerable. They have said many things that will not tell well in print, and such things will have prominence in a political canvass. It is barely possible that the ticket may draw off enough Republican voters to elect Democrats, should they choose to preserve the party organization, but we do not think it.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

FRIDAY EVENING, May 10, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 114⅛.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 87½c buying; 89c selling.

Wheat in Liverpool, 12s 6d@13s.

The ship Annie M. Small, with a cargo of Iron for the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, has arrived in the Columbia river, 115 days from New York. This is an unusually quick passage.

A telegram was received yesterday from R. Wingate, Superintendent of the Coos Bay Coal Company, inquiring whether there was any vessel here seeking cargo, and offered $5 per ton for Coal to San Francisco.

The steamer Idaho arrived last night at 12 o'clock from San Francisco, with passengers and 610 tons of miscellaneous freight. She is announced to sail to-morrow (Saturday) for Victoria with freight and passengers, in place of the steamer California, now due here.

From January 1st to May 2d 1872, Oregon sent to San Francisco 295,302 qr sks Flour, and 69,143 ctls Wheat.

The California Trust Company at San Francisco is about to extend its operations by adding the business of a National Gold Note Bank, with a capital of $1,000,000 gold.

There is a "dead lock" in the Wool market at San Francisco. Eastern buyers decline to purchase at the prices asked. Indications point to a decline in prices. The speculative furor is greatly checked in California and the same is measurably true in Oregon. In the present state of things we are unable to make trustworthy quotations.

The New York Financial Chronicle treats the subject of indirect claims under the Washington treaty in a style that is very just and reasonable. It declares that England objects to the discussion of indirect claims chiefly because she does not intend to pay any money on account of them. But we want them discussed for other purposes besides this money reason. They involve new principles regulative of belligerent and neutral obligations which it is desirable should be incorporated into the permanent body of international law, for the prevention of evils like those from which we suffered at the hands of England during our civil war. Nothing but a full and free discussion of our indirect claims can bring those principles so emphatically to the attention of the civilized world, and it should terminate in a recognition of those principles, the result would be the most benign and widely valuable reform ever made in international law by any treaty or convention recorded in history. With very few interested exceptions the American people do not expect that one cent of those claims will be paid, neither do they care anything about the matter so far as mere money is concerned; they are not willing to forego a discussion of the subject for the objects above stated.

Markets.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—Flour—1,000 bbls went East by rail to-day, making 2,000 bbls sent this week. Good fancy brands of extra are selling in New York at from $7 25 to $13 50 ℔ bbl. Our city millers have to-day advanced the rates for jobbing lots to $6 37½@6 50, an increase of 12½c. All kinds are stronger, though perhaps not to that extent, since the stock of Oregon and interior brands of extra is simply excessive, with prices ranging from $5 50 to $6 25, and superfine from $4 25 to $5 50. The millers justify their advance on account of the increased cost of wheat, the market for which has been greatly strengthened by the sudden jump at Liverpool.

Wheat—An advance of 4 pence in Liverpool adds tone to the market, which is now quite strong. Sales embrace 1,500 sks fair coast at $1 75; 200 sks fair bay, $1 82½; 1,000 sks good milling, $2 05. A lot is reported at $2 07½, and for very fancy lots $2 10 is asked.

Barley—No sales, but quote range at $1 35@1 55.

Oats—500 sks fair, $1 60; good held at $1 80@1 85.

Hay—Fair cargo of wild oat sold at $17 ℔ ton; choice would bring $18.

Potatoes—New this morning sold at $2 25. Old are nominal at 50@75c in jobbing lots.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PORTLAND, MARCH 27, 1872.

The Union Republican party of Oregon, in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policies:

1. To the Constitution of the United States and all its amendments we pledge our unfaltering allegiance, to its authority a willing obedience, to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support.

2. That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt, diminishing and equalizing taxation, administering every branch of public affairs with economy and efficiency, reforming and improving the civil service, enforcing the laws without fear or favor, protecting the nation's wards with paternal care against the cruel avarice of speculation and fraud, and maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers, has been such as to command the approbation of the great majority of the American people, and justly entitle it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican.

3. We pledge the payment of our national debt, in full, in [illegible] with good faith [illegible] all currency [illegible] in accordance with the true [illegible] [illegible] we are opposed to [illegible] to the [illegible] of the Democratic party [illegible] [illegible]

4. We [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the equal rights of all [illegible] [illegible]

5. We favor the encouragement of [illegible] by the General Government of the United States [illegible] [illegible] to actual settlers only, in quantities [illegible]

6. That while we are in favor of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] such adjustment of the duties [illegible] as will encourage the development of the industrial interests of the whole country; and we recommend that policy of national exchange which secures [illegible] [illegible] and manufactures [illegible] [illegible] skilled labor and industry, the [illegible] of the Nation in the [illegible] of prosperity and independence.

7. We [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and shall [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] school [illegible] [illegible] Legislature whereby two hundred thousand dollars, taken from the school fund, were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites, for the construction of a work which, under their operation, entirely sound and responsible, offered to construct for seventy-five thousand dollars less, and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law, such as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education.

8. We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of those acts of the last Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to this State have been taken from the bona fide settlers, and given without limit or proper competition to private land grabbers and speculators; whereby the emoluments and salaries of State officers have been unconstitutionally increased, and the taxes increased thousands of dollars by the creation of new and unnecessary offices and salaries, for the purpose of providing for party favorites; and whereby the citizens of our metropolis have been deprived of and denied the right of controlling their police authority. And we equally condemn the administration of our State officers and laws as extravagant, reckless, illegal and destructive, and we rightfully charge all these results as the acts of the Democratic party.

9. We are in favor of the United States giving to each honorably discharged soldier who served in the armies of the United States to put down the rebellion a warrant for a homestead of 160 acres of public lands.

10. That we demand the repeal of the so-called "Oregonian act," which was devised to support pauper Democratic newspapers at the public expense.

11. That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the General Government extending aid toward building a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Salt Lake City, and from Jackson county to Humboldt, and we hereby pledge our party representatives to the support of the same.

12. That the indiscriminate licensing of persons to sell spirituous liquors without being placed under proper responsibilities for the abuse thereof, having been found by experience to promote the growth of crime and pauperism, and thereby to materially increase the rate of taxation, the Republican party recognizes the right and duty of the law making power to prevent and limit the evils and abuses of such sale, so far as concerns the public good and is consistent with individual liberty, by refusing to license other than law-abiding and responsible persons, who can furnish sufficient sureties for good conduct.

13. That the Republican party of Oregon is in favor of obtaining assistance from the General Government for the construction of a wagon road from the city of Portland to the Dalles, recognizing this as a most important and necessary improvement for the State.

14. We affirm that the continuance in power of the Republican party is the only sure preservation of national peace and prosperity, and for reasons therefor we point to its brilliant record in the late civil war for a complete national unity, to a united sisterhood of thirty-seven States, to our Territories rapidly warming into State life, to a nation freed from the taint of human slavery, to an elevated and enlarged citizenship, to our national standing at home and abroad, to the work of a generous reform in all discovered abuses of authority or trust, to an unequaled foreign credit, to a successful and a lift [illegible] system, and to the unparalleled peace and prosperity everywhere in our broad domain, and these are our pledges for the future.

15. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party, taken by the action of their conventions in seven States, as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years, and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already assumed in several of the States, we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

NEW REMEDIES, NEWS
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,
623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his office, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his aid [illegible]

MARRIED MEN.
Or those who contemplate marriage, who are under any of these fearful maladies, should not [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them, but obtain immediate relief.
DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give patients a written instrument, binding himself to a radical and permanent cure, or makes no charge.

CURED AT HOME.
Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By including Ten Dollars coin in a letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.
All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.
Beware of the San Francisco quacks and impostors, who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary; one of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and are not fairly too work at their trades. Some are boot makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid them is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising [illegible] nine cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by high sounding titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he professes.
Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearny street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. P. O. Box 1,957.
REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.
Consultations FREE.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.
How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering on account of disease, once from the effects of secret indulgence, or from poison absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of the enjoyment of life. In this horrid state thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Their guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering any of these horrible life-destroying diseases, that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Take them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, who has made private diseases his specialty; his mode of treatment is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important that those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the pretended doctors who infest all cities, who pretend to be curing all diseases in a few days, [illegible] the public by using the names of eminent physicians of Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.
Seminal Emissions, the consequence of solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noises like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief is not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and unfailing mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this disease by any other—the San Francisco quacks.
